Calomel Loses You a Day's Work!
Take Dodson's Liver Tone Instead Read my guarantee! If bilious, constipated or headachy you need not take nasty, sickening, dangerous calomel to get straightened up.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.
"Calomel is dangerous and people now it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much, but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of ever sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.
Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults.
Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.—(Adv.)

FOR-RENT CAR DRIVERS SAY TRADE IS SLOWER

SOLDIERS LEAVING OUTS INTO BUSINESS.

Some Drivers of Jitneys Will in Near Future Seek New Occupations.

For rent car drivers operating between the city and the army camps complain of a big falling off in their patronage. They state that their business has already been cut down at least one-fourth of normal. With the work of demobilization steadily progressing with ever increasing rapidity, it is expected that it will not be long until there will be far too many cars eager to get the messenger travel to make the business profitable. The rent car drivers will then abandon their present work and seek some other occupation. Just what they will do none of the drivers questioned upon the subject seemed to know. They are just going to let the future care for itself. One significant fact is noticeable, the cars go out very lightly loaded and return full on nearly every trip. There is but one explanation, many soldiers are coming to town to return to camp no more. Then, too, loads of baggage are seen on the road to the city.
Thus far there has been no let-up in the number of licenses issued, according to Capt. Sullivan, assistant provost marshal with headquarters at the park. The captain stated that thus far the number of military licenses issued to rent service car drivers is practically the same as those issued during a similar period for 1918. To date about 175 licenses have been issued. In all there were about 200 military licenses issued during the year 1918. Capt. Sullivan stated that there would be no definite limit put upon the number of licenses issued, but that the number will be dependent upon the amount of traffic, which he expects to steadily fall off.

BEHALF MOONEY

Winston Jenkins to Address Labor at Mass Meeting Monday Night.
Winston Jenkins, special representative of Tom Mooney Molders Defendants is in the city in the interest of Mooney and will speak at a big mass meeting Saturday night. The meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock in the Central Labor Union hall on East Eighth street by the labor men of the city.

Jenkins states that Mooney's trial was nothing but a criminal capitalis-t's "frame up" on organized labor. He declares in a statement that during the trial nine degenerate who were of the lowest type were paid $17,000 in money as a reward for their perjury against Mooney.

In view of the trial which the special representative says was a "frame up," he then continues by adding that the labor people only ask, that the constitution of the United States be lived up to and that Governor Stephens of California, adhere to President Wilson in granting Mooney a new and impartial trial. He says further that "labor organizations representing over 20,000,000 workers, President Wilson, Hon. W. B. Wilson and even the trial judge, Hon. Franklin A. Griffin, have requested that Mooney be given a fair and impartial trial but that to hide and prevent further exposure of Mooney's traducers, he was sentenced to life imprisonment—a living grave."

He then declares that organized labor workers have determined to get Mooney a fair trial and that the perjury also shall be made to come to trial. After this he remarked: "Look who framed him, ex-Pinkerton's and Bureau detective agency." Jenkins will give the history of the trial from beginning to end, as he was present in San Francisco during the celebration in July, 1916, and witnessed the bomb throwing excitement.
He says that on Jan. 14, 1919, there is to be a big labor meeting, the largest that has ever been held in the United States for the purpose of providing ways and means of obtaining a new trial for Mooney.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

ONLY A FEW LETTERS COME TO OLD SANTA

CHILDREN ENTER INTO SPIRIT OF OCCASION.

They All Agree to Share Gifts With Little Ones of War-Stricken Europe.

The coming Christmas is to be the most notable in the world's history, not because of its elaborate celebration but rather because the great world war has ended and peace reigns on earth.

Even the children are uniting in an appropriate observance of the day.
For months it was feared that the war would continue and hence little preparation was made for an elaborate celebration of this day, so the children didn't write as many letters to old Santa Claus as usual, because their mothers impressed upon them the fact that old Santa Claus was more needed among the little children in war-stricken lands than in this land of plenty, so they, as a rule, consented to do without many of the usual number of their Christmas gifts so the little children "over there" might have a share in the gifts of this day of share.

This accounts for the small number of letters which the mail men have brought to old Santa Claus, whose headquarters are established in The News office.

The few letters received are printed herewith, and old Santa Claus promises to come to see the little tots who are asking a few things from his generally generous gift bag.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little girl 7 years old. My name is Edith.
I want a doll, a rocking chair, a doll, a doll, a doll, a doll, a doll, candy and nuts and apples. Your little friend,
EDITH.

ALVA JANE KINGSTON.

girl 3 years old, and I want you to please bring me a doll, ring and a wagon. Don't forget daddy, mother and little sister. I try to be a good little girl. Your friend, ALVA JANE KINGSTON.

Dear Santa Claus: I won't ask for much this year because these are such hard times. I just want a watch and a baby doll and some fruits. I want a watch to go round my arm, and that's all I want this year. By-bye. Don't forget it. To Santa Claus from GLADYS UPCHURCH.

a pair of skates and a little war can-

old. Your friend, again. I wish you would bring me crackers, pistol caps and bulldog anges, nuts and candy. Your good little boy, HARRY G. BURNETTE.

Dear Santa Claus: Please bring bed, some candy, oranges, apples and nuts and a story book, and please bring Mrs. Mac something. Please been a good little girl and go to school every day. Your little friend, NATLIE STUART PHILLIPS.

Dear Santa Claus: Will write you a few lines, as I've been a good little girl. I go to Sunday-school every Sunday and love my teacher very much. I am 5 years old. I want you to bring me a doll and cart, a set of dishes and a doll bed, some apples and oranges and nuts. I have two little brothers going to school. They want you to remember them, too. I have a big brother. So don't forget him; and also two sisters working in the spinning mill, and want you to bring them each a doll and cart.

Well, I have written all I can think of. If you want to bring anything I haven't mentioned I'll appreciate it just the same. Well, good-by. Wishing you a merry Christmas.

letter for you. I did not have enough room on the other letter. I think I big doll for Christmas and a great big wagon that can run fast. I want this wagon to ride on the side, and bring candy and oranges, and bring Will a fountain pen. Bring a gun that will shoot a stopper, and other things. Good night.

FRANCIS WATSON.

a desk and little chair and auto that runs, clown, elephant, and drum.
Now please bring all that and a lot more if you have it, and a train. I will be a good little boy.
ROBERT FLUMLEE.

ma's only child and would like very much to have you bring me a horn, a ball and a drum, a whistle, a waganything else you think a little boy that has been real good a whole year deserves.

As ever, your little boy,
EUGENE MCCARTNEY.
